RMO 2023 Ministry Guidelines

The following is a list of the basic guidelines by which all RMO Team Members must abide while serving with Onward For Christ. Violation of these guidelines may result in immediate discharge from the project.

1. Team members must conduct themselves in a professional and Christ-like manner.
2. Team members must follow all instructions given by RMO staff.
3. Team members must participate in all team meetings and ministry functions.
4. Team members must be punctual to all meetings and ministry functions.
5. Team members must maintain good personal hygiene.
6. Team members must dress neatly and avoid sloppy or faddish clothing.
7. Team members must demonstrate kindness and Godly attitudes towards their fellow team members.
8. Team members must use the King James Version of the Bible when participating in group activities.

RMO uses the King James Version exclusively in the English language for ministry. We also recognize that believers hold a variety of views regarding the Bible-version issue, and we respect your right to read from whichever Bible version you choose. However, to avoid confusion and maintain continuity, we ask that you bring a KJV Bible for use during team functions. You are, of course, welcome to use a different version for personal reading or study.

10. Team members may not claim any denominational affiliation while evangelizing

We recognize that team members come from various denominational backgrounds. However, experience has shown that while ministering in Ukraine, denominational lines close more doors to ministry than they open. Thus, when speaking with nationals, all RMO team members are expected to claim simple allegiance to the Lord Jesus Christ and belief in the Bible as the Word of God.

After you have carefully read the above guidelines, please sign your name in the space below. Your signature indicates your complete understanding of the RMO 2023 Ministry Guidelines, and your willingness to fully comply with these guidelines during your service time in Colorado. If you need further clarification regarding any of these guidelines, please email us at: elliott.shupe@protonmail.com
